to the man acting as General Manager of and for Golden Coral Buffet and Grill at 4021 spencer highway; in private and unlimited capacity.
hereinafter: you, your, or yours.

from the self-aware living soul of god existing within the flesh and blood man of nature sojourning earth, the land of god.
hereinafter: i, me, my or myself.

on and for the record let the record show

i am a true free sovereign being.

i am age of majority and competent to testify and do hereby testify before god as my witness that i make this declaration of my own free will act and deed to affirm all facts declared herein are true, correct, complete, and certain, not false or misleading and not hearsay, but are admissible as evidence in all courts of law.

being cognizant of penalty of perjury and with god as my witness, i do hereby affirm, depose, declare, decree, and say, every thing within this document is the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help me god; my word is my bond.

plain statement of facts:

- you unambiguously claim that i am absolutely obligated to pay for food and drinks i order and consume at Golden Coral Buffet and Grill.
  - no man can contravene or contradict his own deed. the principal of estoppel by deed.
  - the claimant is always bound to prove: the burden of proof lies on him.
  - he who acts through another acts himself, [the acts of an agent are the acts of the principal.]
  - that which is the principal part of a thing is the thing itself.
  - no man can give that which he has not (value.)
  - no one is bound to an impossibility (give value.)
- i can find no positive proof of verified facts of unambiguous evidence that i am obligated to pay for food and drinks i order and consume at Golden Coral Buffet and Grill, and i believe no such facts of evidence exist.
  - the burden of proof lies upon him who affirms, not on him who denies.
  - upon the one alleging, not upon him denying, rests the duty of proving.
  - it is in the nature of things, that he who denies a fact is not bound to prove it.
  - the presumption is always in favor of the one who denies.
- if you can not prove i am obligated to pay for food and drinks i order and consume at Golden Coral Buffet and Grill then you can not obligate me to pay for food and drinks i order and consume at Golden Coral Buffet and Grill.
  - in the law of estoppel, "silence" implies the knowledge and an opportunity to act upon it.
  - consent makes the law. (a contract is law between the parties agreeing to be bound by it.)
  - what is proved by the record, ought not to be denied.
- proof requires personal first-hand knowledge (not belief) supported with verified facts of unambiguous evidence.
  - what is not proved and what does not exist are the same; it is not a defect of the law, but of proof.
  - it is the same thing not to be as not to appear. not to appear is the same thing as not to be.
  - an ambiguous answer is to be taken against (is not to be construed in favor of) him who offers it.
  - an ambiguous contract is to be interpreted against the seller.
- if you do not possess positive proof of verified facts of unambiguous evidence that i am obligated to pay for food and drinks i order and consume at Golden Coral Buffet and Grill and still require me to pay for food and drinks i order and consume at Golden Coral Buffet and Grill then you are knowingly and willfully committing fraud.
  - Fraud, in the sense of a court of equity, properly includes all acts, omissions, and concealments which involve a breach of legal or equitable duty, trust, or confidence justly reposed, and are injurious to another, or by which an undue and unconscientious advantage is taken of another. 1 Story, Eq. Jur. § 187.
  - Once a fraud, always a fraud. It is a fraud to conceal a fraud. Fraud lies hid in general expressions.
